Sexual Offense Policy and Procedures:

This policy applies equally to all members of the College of Southern Nevada community: students, faculty, administrators, staff, contract employees and visitors.

CSN is committed to providing an institutional environment where all persons may pursue their studies, careers, duties, and activities in an atmosphere free of threat of unwelcome and unwanted sexual actions. It strongly condemns sexual offenses, will not tolerate sexual offenders, and supports those who have been victimized.

The circumstances surrounding sexual assaults on college campuses are often quite different from those that occur elsewhere. Many of the incidents occur under circumstances commonly referred to as "DATE RAPE." Date rape is a sexual assault against a person that is committed by someone the victim knows. The perpetrator may be someone the victim knows well and who may have previously been in his or her company. Because of this familiarity, the victim often fails to see the incident as a serious crime and may, in fact, place some of the blame for the incident upon themselves. Date rape in college surroundings quite often follows the use of alcohol or other drugs by the victim and the perpetrator. Very often, the victims find that they have been placed in a vulnerable position by trying to make new acquaintances or fit in with a new crowd. All students should remember that date rape is another name for a very serious crime. Every person is an individual and should be able to assert his or her wishes in a relationship. Self-awareness and good common sense are your best weapons against date rape. Trust your instincts, and be firm in saying what you like and don't like, a forceful "NO" may help dissuade a date rapist.

The college will respond promptly, fairly, and decisively to all reports of sexual assault, members of the college community accused of sexual assault will be subject to college disciplinary procedures when the alleged incident has occurred on campus or when the incident has occurred off campus and materially affects the learning environment or operations of the college.

Sexual assaults are serious violations of the college's judicial code, faculty standards and employee policies. They are crimes under state law and punishable by fines and/or imprisonment.

CSN will act to prevent any reoccurrence after an alleged sex offense upon request from a complainant, including assisting in changing the complainant's academic situation, if those changes are reasonably available. The options for change include, but are not limited to, reassignment to a different section of the same academic class, or other reasonable conditions as situations deem appropriate.

CSN is compliant with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (The Clery Act) as amended in 1998, which requires all post-secondary institutions to publish and distribute certain information regarding campus crimes, including reports of campus sexual assault, sexual assault policies and security programming to all current students, employees and to any applicant who so requests.

Applicable Laws & Penalties Related to Sexual Assault Crimes:

Rape:

When a person engages in sexual intercourse with another that is incapable of consent because of age or other factors or by forcible compulsion.

Sodomy:

When a person engages in deviant sexual intercourse with another who is incapable of consent because of age or other factors or by forcible compulsion.

Sexual Abuse:

When a person subjects another person to sexual contact without their consent.

Penalties:

A person who commits a sexual assault is guilty of a category "A Felony" and shall be punished when substantial bodily harm to the victim:

- (1) Life without the possibility of parole;
- (2) Life with the possibility of parole, when a minimum of 15 years has been served;
- (3) A definite term of 40 years with eligibility of parole beginning when a minimum of 15 years has been served.

Campus Disciplinary Procedure in Cases of Alleged Sex Offense:

If a student, faculty, or staff member is accused of sexual assault, or other sexual offenses, the college will bring disciplinary charges against the individual involved. The accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during the campus disciplinary proceeding brought about by an allegation of sexual assault. Both the accuser and the accused shall be informed of the outcome of any institutional disciplinary proceeding alleging a sex offense. The Student Code of Conduct governs the disciplinary procedure as outlined in Chapter 6 of the NSHE university by-laws (copies may be obtained at the Office of the CSN Chief of Police). Students found guilty of sexual assault may face sanctions including suspension and expulsion for the college.

The college will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence (as that term is defined in section 16 of title 18, United States Code), or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by such institution against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for purposes of this paragraph.

If You Are the Victim of Sexual Assault: Get Help

If you are a victim of sexual assault, go to a safe place immediately. If the incident occurred on campus, contact the CSN Police Department at: (702) 651-7911 or 911. Officers from the department will assist you in seeking medical care or you may contact the 24-hour Rape Crisis Hotline at: (702) 366-1640.

The department has formulated guidelines to be followed when dealing with reports of sexual assault. The primary objective of these guidelines is to provide all possible assistance to the victim, apprehend the perpetrator and maintain the confidentiality of the victim. These guidelines are as follows:

1. If you are the victim of sexual assault, we will not prejudge you or your actions. Victims are not responsible for the actions of others. We will meet with you privately and you may be accompanied by a personal advocate. If requested, a female officer will assist you. Notify The CSN Police Department at (702) 651-7911 or 911 immediately. We will assist you in obtaining emergency medical treatment, police assistance or counseling if necessary.
2. We will treat your case with courtesy, sensitivity and understanding and we will not release your name to the public or the press.
3. We will discuss and explain the criminal justice process and you will be kept informed as to the progress of the investigation, which may include the arrest and prosecution of the offender.
4. You are encouraged to receive immediate medical attention. This is important to alleviate fears of sexually transmitted disease and pregnancy. It will also aid in the collecting and preserving of evidence that can be later used in prosecution. Do not wash, douche or remove clothing worn at the time of the attack before you seek medical attention. This evidence is critical for future criminal prosecution.
5. When calm, make note of the events involving the attack. Inform the Police of these details.

6. It may be necessary to seek the services of a counselor. College counselors are equipped to assist victims immediately and make referrals to community agencies. To speak to a counselor, you may call:

Cheyenne Campus	651 4049
West Charleston Campus	651-5670
Henderson Campus	651-3165

7. Whenever a report of sexual assault is received, the Chief of Police or his designee will be notified immediately.

As with all other reports of incidents taken on campus, the security officer taking the report will obtain as much information as possible about the circumstances of the incident.

Unlike other reports, the identity of the victim will be kept confidential. The name, address and other identifying information will not be included on the incident report.

If a student is found guilty of violating university rules, they shall be subjected to the following range of sanctions defined in the Chapter 6 of the NSHE Rules and Regulations for the Maintenance of Public Order: admonition, warning, censure, disciplinary probation, restitution, suspension, expulsion, ejection and/or arrest by the civil authorities.

College Support Services On and Off Campus

The goal of all information and referral services is to help victims/survivors take back control and to provide support services to both the victim/survivor and the accused perpetrator. The CSN Police Department staff will encourage the victim/survivor and the accused to contact the Rape Crisis Center and the Counseling and Psychological Services (See information below). The department staff will also encourage the victim/survivor to seek medical attention and consider filing an official police report. All final choices of the victim/survivor will be supported, and information for future referral will be provided.

Rape Crisis Center

The college is committed to offering educational and support services. Victims of sexual assault are encouraged to seek the assistance of the professional counselors on staff. These counselors are equipped to immediately assist victims and make referrals to community agencies/programs where appropriate. The counseling professionals will also do all they can to assist victims of sexual assault including help in changing academic and life situations if requested by the victim, and if these changes are reasonably available. The Rape Crisis Center is located at 801 S. Rancho, Suite B-2, Las Vegas, NV 89106. For more information please contact the 24-hour Rape Crisis Hotline at (888) 366-1640, or visit their website at: <http://www.therapeccrisiscenter.org/>.

Counseling and Psychological Services

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) offers a variety of free and confidential services aimed at promoting the growth and development of currently-enrolled CSN students. Services are available to students taking at least 6 credits during Spring/Fall semesters or 3 credits during Summer terms. CAPS provides short-term counseling/psychotherapy for individuals, couples (students only) and groups. CAPS also offer crisis intervention and educational presentations and programs. Confidential consultations are available to assist faculty and staff regarding student specific concerns and/or classroom situations.

Information Regarding Registered Sex Offenders

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act (CSCPA) and related State statutes requires that convicted sex offenders inform their state registering agencies whenever they enroll or become employed at a postsecondary institution. The registering agencies are required to notify the campus police of the presence of the sex offender on campus, and the institutions are in turn authorized to share this information publicly, including it in their annual crime report beginning October 2003.

To determine if a person is a registered sex offender, click on the following link to the Nevada Sex Offender Registry <http://www.nvsexoffenders.gov/>. Once in the registry your search will reveal the photograph and relevant information of any matching registrants.
