

Proposed Central Functions

Central functions may be managed centrally for greatest efficiency and effectiveness or in some cases centrally monitored and coordinated with programs and engagement occurring at the respective campuses.

- Human Resources & employee training
- Facilities Management
- Financial Services & Purchasing
- Budgeting
- CSN Foundation
- Police
- Emergency management
- Curriculum development & program assessment
- Legal Services
- Marketing
- Government Relations
- Information Technology
- Distance Education
- Institutional effectiveness & accountability
- Coordination of advising, counseling & first-year experience
- Strategic planning
- Resource allocation
- Sponsored (grants) projects
- Accreditation (regional & specialized)
- Classroom scheduling

Centrally coordinated but decentralized for improved service:

- Financial Aid
- Inclusive Learning & Engagement
- Instructional design & online support services
- Workforce & Economic Development
- Public Information/Communications
- Admissions
- Registrar

Proposed Campus Functions (Decentralized)

Reporting to the president, campus provosts/vice presidents will have authority and responsibility for the following:

- Curriculum deployment & staffing recommendation (in coordination with deans & the Office of Academic Affairs)
- Student affairs & conduct (in coordination with the Office of Student Affairs)
- Campus safety, parking & security (in coordination with the Office of Strategic Initiatives & Administrative Services)
- Community relations (in coordination with the Office of the President)
- Community diversity, campus life programming
- Space scheduling
- Implementation of college policies
- Implementation of budget allocations for campus administration
- Single point of customer service & contact for the community
- Local coordination of financial aid & other services for students
- Coordination of public relations/internal campus communications (in coordination with Office of the President)
- Local implementation of student advising, counseling & first-year experience
- Local diversity programming & initiatives (in coordination with Office of the President)
- Recruitment of students
- Point of contact for CCSD schools in the service area (with dual credit/concurrent programming centralized)